All barracks buildings were lighted after susset. On 15 January, about 40 to 50 soldiers received training in skiing in the berracks yard and about 30 soldiers were maintenancing vehicles in the garages. Fifteen uniformed women received basic infantry training without weapons in the barracks yard. According to a local resident, on 18 January, the central section of the Luetzendorf Kaserne was occupied by about 450 troops and an undetermined number of uniformed wemen who wore blackbordered crimson equalets and were assigned administrative work. Sentries observed there wore black-bordered black epaulets. On 15 January, about 60 soldiers with rifles were seen receiving basic training in close combat and use of bayonets and 8 soldiers were rewinding cables in a shed. Truck loaded with cable reels, left the installation toward the town. A sedan, which was occupied by two officers wearing black-tordered black epaulets, left in the same direction.

- 7. A local resident stated that, from 10 to 18 January, 20 tanks were sheltered in the sheds near the fence north of the area on Am Herrenroedchen, in the central section of the Luctzendorf Kaserne.
- 3. On 6 January, the Fliegerhorst installation at Nohra was occupied by about 150 to 200 officers and a guard detail of about 150 men. Sentries observed wore red-bordered black epaulets. A local resident stated that the AAA and other gums, which had been seen in the yard of the Fliegerhorst installation in early November 1952, left the installation with their crews in early December on the autobehn in an eastern direction. Source expressed the belief that some of these guns had been parked in other installations of the Weiner post, prior to their departure. 5
- 9. On 3 January, the Panzer Kaserne between Jenser Strasse and Kegelbruecke (bridge) was occupied by a guard detail of about 50 to 60 troops, Sentries wore red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery insignia.
- On 6 January, the Flak Kaserne, according to a local resident, was occupied by an AAA unit of about 300 men and a motor transport unit of about 400 nen. The same informant stated that 12 AA guns were in the sheds of the AAA unit. Training and instruction was mostly given
